The model number must be a typographical error, since there is no Artista 650 (only a 630 and 640). I'm assuming it is a 640 since you describe it as having a different bobbin casing than most Berninas and a button for cutting the thread. This machine must have a rotary rather than oscillating hook, which is what Bernina built its strong name on.

BERNINA ACCESSORIES AND PARTS
The artista 630 is a highly sophisticated sewing machine with extensive practical and decorative stitches for sewing. The optional embroidery module and BERNINA embroidery software (such as BERNINA ArtLink) transform it into the perfect embroidery system. And thanks to the BERNINA Stitch Regulator, it's also a first-class quilter.

I purchased both a Bernina sewing machine for my wife and an Artitista line of an embroidery machine. We had nothing but problems especially with the Artista. When we attempted several repairs at authorized dealers, we ended up returning it to Bernina HQ for repairs, still did not work. When I finally contacted them after months of trying/repairing, they told me the machine was beyond the ...
